

Faye Beatrice Coyle

September 13, 1931 - March 9, 2019

With profound sadness we announce the passing of beloved mother and devoted friend, Faye Beatrice Coyle, age 87. She passed away March 9th due to a short bout with cancer in Fresno, CA. She was born September 13, 1931 in Klamath Falls, Oregon to Lester and Helen Turnbaugh and grew up in Chowchilla, CA. After entering college at Fresno State, she met and married Bob Coyle and was married for 59 years. Bob and Faye had a wonderful marriage that set an example for many and enjoyed years of travel all over the world before his passing in 2012.

Faye was an incredible woman who began her career as a teacher and went on to help her husband through law school and have a family. As a true teacher at heart, she taught her kids to use common sense and to “do the right thing”, something she and Bob stayed true to their whole lives. Faye was very loving and generous to everyone she met, which is why the Coyle household was always the place to be for friends and relatives. She was involved in many organizations including Kappa Alpha Theta, Junior League, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts, PTA and LARCS. She was welcoming to one and all and everyone loved her genuine personality. She will be missed dearly and forever in our hearts.

Faye is survived by her sister Jean Akens of Kingman, AZ; her son and his wife Robert and Kim Coyle; her daughter and her husband Barbara and Michael Vellone and her grandchildren, Matt Vellone, Sydney Coyle, Morgan Vellone and Hunter Coyle.
