

Felipe Singson Akuin

February 5, 1940 - March 23, 2020

Felipe Singson Akuin was born on February 5, 1940 in Manila, Philippines to Felipe and Maria (Singson) Akuin. He passed away suddenly, with his family at his side on March 23, 2020 in Fresno, California at the age of 80.

Felipe worked for many years in clerical support for the Philippine National Roadway. He enjoyed spending time with his wife and family, but his favorite past time was fishing.

Felipe is survived by his loving wife, Evelyn Akuin of Fresno; his daughter Leezel Perez of Fresno and his cherished grandchildren, Kayla Reyes, Brittney Angeles and Brendon Perez. He will also be missed by many extended family members and friends here and in the Philippines.

Visitation will be held at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church on Friday, March 27, 2020 from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. A funeral mass will be celebrated at 10:00 a.m. Interment will follow at St. Peter's Cemetery.

 Due to the current situation of the CoVid19 Shelter in Place order, we are asking all persons over the age of 60 to please refrain from attending the service. Only 10 persons will be allowed to be inside the sanctuary and out of respect for the family, please allow the family to occupy those spaces. Thank you for your understanding.*
