“ For many years Mikki Bauers ran a home-based bed and breakfast business in Cambria, California during which time we, also b&b owners nearby, became friends and collaborators. We thoroughly enjoyed our interactions with Mikki and learned her life story which, like most, had its ups and downs. Being a single woman in middle aged didn't stop her from involvement with such organizations as Rotary, the Red Hat Society and the "mob" dancing that had developed into a spontaneous event around town. She was a prolific volunteer overall. It was only after illness precipitated a move to a smaller dwelling in Fresno that she was forced to sell her magnificent home (she even donated some of her fine antque furniture to us). We often referred business to her because we knew customers would be treated well. We housed her briefly so she could be close to doctors.

When she left Cambria she left a hole in our lives but we understood she needed to be near her beloved daughter and grandchildren, and scale down. We planned to visit her but, while traveling, learned she had passed. May her spirit live forever, we miss her..

“ Mikki & I met on The Shutterbug Clique, a photography site that we both loved. She became a cyber friend almost immediately and I enjoyed our phone conversations, her posts and her extensive knowledge of animals and all things in the world of nature. I learned so much from her! Mikki had a deep love of family and often spoke about her daughter, son-in-law, & her grandsons, especially her grandsons of whom she was very proud. Please accept my heartfelt sympathy & prayers, all of you, at her passing. Rest in the peace you so richly deserve, Mikki. I miss you so!

“ Mikki was a very special cyber friend on a photography site we both enjoyed. She was so loving & knowledgeable about many things, especially all animals! I learned a lot from her and I sorely miss her but no more pain, no more illnesses, Mikki. May you rest in peace, my friend.

“ Dear family of Mikki. I miss her so much. She was a great friend. Even though I had never met her in person, she was a fellow friend on the Shutterbug and I spoke to her on the phone a few times. I loved her uplifting personality and loved reading her posts everyday. I loved her stories about family who she loved very, very much and of course all the stories about Mr. Quimby. She was so knowledgeable about dogs and animals and plants and I loved that she loved to make crafts and was so interested in gardening and antiques. She and I had a lot in common and she was fun to talk to either on the phone or back and fourth on The Bug!
I will keep her family and friends in my thoughts and prayers as I know you are still mourning her loss as are a lot of us on the Bug. Her presence is so missed!

“ I new Mikki through a photography forum. She was such a fighter and tried to remain upbeat despite how poorly she felt. I will miss her photos and her stories. The stories she told about her dogs made me smile.

I am so sorry for your loss.
