“ There are so many, like getting lost because I was reading the map upside down, to what you said were that last words from him , I want a Bologna sandwich, when I ride with him some time when he was hauling lunch meat we would “borrow” a package of bologna and stop at Castaic and get a loaf of bread and have bologna sandwiches while climbing the grapevine heading north towards home. I had been telling my self to stop by and see him, and show off my new truck to him, and now I missed that chance to thank him for giving me my childhood dream of driving truck. Thanks Cisco for helping me learn and thanks to Bea , Robert and Ruth for putting up with me all those years, love and prayers to both of you, sincerely , Pete
