“ You Coloured My World: To the man I love and shared my life with for nearly 38 years you will forever hold my heart. This is not the first time or the last time that I will be thanking you for the gift you gave me by giving me our children. So that being said: Thank you so very much. You did good Poppies. I know that you took with you the knowledge of how much you were loved. I'll be making our trip trip to Buck ridge. love always your wife Patricia
