“ Rosie was such a special person to my husband and me, she was our comadre. I first meet Rosie at work over 27yrs ago, we hit it off right away with her of humor and honesty, She was a great cook, we loved to share recipes and often cooked together. At work she was always there to listen and give great advice in anything from work to family issues, I can't express my sadness of a loss of such a great friend. I know she is at peace with no pain, that's the only thing that makes me feel at peace, knowing that she's no longer in pain. I have wonderful memories of our friendship, I'll miss talking to her about our garden or her telling me how to make a certain food I didn't know how to make, so many things...Peace be with you my dear friend.

“ Rosie was my work mom. Clients came in thinking she was my mom because she called me daughter. She was more than a coworker or friend. At work, She taught me so much about helping guide new moms. After work, she was always the shoulder you could turn to for fun, advice, help, and prayer. The most important lesson Rosie taught me was to always pray and pray hard. “God can hear you and he can hear me” she would always tell me. I know Rosie is in the comfort of our Lord, but my heart aches to not have her here drinking a caramel frap with me anymore. I was truly blessed to have had you in my life Rosie! I will never forget our friendship and laughs. You will always be in my heart and prayers!
