

Adam Lawrence Parfitt

March 16, 1984 - November 28, 2016

Adam Lawrence Parfitt was born on March 16, 1984 in Fresno, California. He attended Clovis schools through the 10 grade, graduating from Las Plumas High School in Oroville, California in 2002. Following graduation his adventures began, working as a blackjack dealer in Oroville, then Reno, Las Vegas, and as a pit boss at Table Mountain Casino.

Adam returned to school, earning his Bachelors of Science degree in computer networking, graduating Magna cum laud with a perfect 4.0 GPA and perfect attendance. For the last two years he worked as a network specialist for Forward Advantage, taking advantage of travel opportunities with this company to Texas, Colorado, Louisiana, Iowa, and Washington State, to name a few locations.

In his spare time, he loved to shoot, fly his drone, play golf, barbecue and build computers from pieces he collected over the years. His family and friends meant the world to him, always sharing his gorgeous smile, ready to help others, and although he didn't particularly like to teach, he had the talent for it with endless patience.

Adam left us on Monday, November 28, 2016, leaving behind his mother Marilyn Regan, father and step-mother Lawrence and Arline Parfitt, siblings Jana Baker (Tony), Leisha Huffman (Don), Brian Parfitt, Brenda Lewis, Mike

Elrod (Tara), Karen Chisum (Jim), Stephanie Savanapridi (Alan), Michelle Veneman (Andrew), numerous nieces and nephews, and his aunts Beverly Wilhelm Butler (Denny) and Florine Parfitt.

A celebration of life will be held at Wolf Lakes located at 11646 E. Ashlan Avenue in Sanger on Saturday, December 3, 2016 from 1-4pm.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ Adam -

You were a great friend and coworker. Thanks for sharing your knowledge with me, and teaching me how to throw cards like a madman.

Rest easy, brother.
