

Alice Fresto Gustin

May 21, 1935 - March 27, 2016

Alice Fresto Gustin was born to Patricio Giray and Juana Fresto in Samar, Philippines. Alice passed away peacefully surrounded by her daughters and family at Nancy Hinds on March 27, 2016 at the age of 80. She worked as accountant for the Philippine Government Department of Treasury for over 30 years.

Alice was actively involved in the Filipino Community. She was a very humble person who gave so willingly to many organizations. She had a deep faith and knowledge about God's kingdom because of she had been yearning to be with Him for years because she understood in her heart that she journeyed faithfully according to God's will. Alice attended many retreats and loved going to St. Anthony's Retreat House. She had a sincere devotion for the Santo Nino and the Our Lady of Fatima. She was a long time leader of the Santo Nino Prayer Group and many other organizations. Her presence will definitely be missed by all.

Alice is preceded in death by her husband, Kenneth Gustin who passed away in 1988.

She is survived by her daughters, Christine Pacio and her husband Ray, Cheryl Garcia and her husband Dino and Patricia Gustin all of Fresno. She also leaves 6 grandchildren and extended family members and friends.
