“ I didn't have the privilege of meeting Andrew, but reading everyone's comments here, I can tell that he was very loved and I am so sorry for your family's loss. I came across this page while trying to find Andrew online. My son and I just found his old driver's license at Taco Bell in Clovis tonight and I was hoping to be able to return it to him. My heart sank when I realized I had found the right Andrew, but he had passed away. I would be more than happy to mail his license to his wife or other family member if you would like me to. You can send me an email at debsickler@yahoo.com so I know where to send it or what you would prefer I do with it.

“ As the family and I look through the photo albums, tears of joy flow down my face. What a joy Andrew was. Always smiling, goofing off, and protecting those he loved. His memory makes my heart dance, and I hold close the Lords promise that we will all be together again. We all love you Andrew, you are missed💜

“ The last time Andrew, his sister, her sons and I went to see him and his wife Michelle on Halloween. We then went to the haunted house. While everyone else was being scared, I was having the time of my life watching their reactions to the actors inside. He was a good friend and he will be missed. I wish I had kept in touch with him.

“ Andrew, you will be missed by all of your dear friends and family. It is very difficult to say goodbye, but we will see each other again. You were a good friend to Alfonso and I and loved it when you came to the ranch to visit. Alfonso always said "Andrew and me are the only two guys in the world that put up with all of you crazy women". I love you Andrew, you will always be in my heart.

Margarita Davila - April 14, 2015 at 12:28 PM

This made me smile. Ya'll are some "crazy women". That's what makes you all so special. Laughter is the best medication. Thank you Margarita and Alfonso ❤️

“ One of my many memories of my son, Andrew was when he used to drive me to the Amtrack station, We would go get McDonald's and eat in the CSR and wait for the train to come. I was going to Medford, Ore to visit my other family there; or sometimes to Merced to see sister and nephew and great nephews.

“ Andrew was a great man with a huge heart, that I am blessed enough to call my bbrother in-law. He was the best story teller, the man was the original GPS navigation system. He put his family first and loved my sister like no other can. He enhanced our happiness and greeted everyone with a smile. The world was a better place, and my life more richer with him in it. Until we meet again my brother. You're gone from this world, but you will remain forever in our hearts. Miss you Drew and I love you.

“ One good memory with my son; was when he picked me up or took me to take the Amtrack ; to Oregon to visit my other family there and grandchildren. We would get McDonald's and about 730 pm sit over near where the train comes in to eat our dinner; as I called it. We would talk about things and laugh. Lovingly mom; Charlotte

He loved spending time with you, running errands and watching old westerns. Good memories ❤️
