“ My first memory is when Elijah was about 5 or 6 and he came over so excited to show off his new purse. He was a confident and fun kid to be around. after some years passed we got in contact again this time is when I met Angel. Still the same confident and fun person to be around. We would talk about our trucks and what we wanted to do to them and the pictures we were going to take with them. You were so excited about life and being with all your friends. you are gone way to soon, but you will never be forgotten.
