

Angie Gavello

September 11, 1923 - November 4, 2014

Angie Gavello was born on September 11, 1923. She passed away peacefully on November 4, 2014, at the age of 91 after battling Alzheimer's disease.

Angie graduated from Fresno Technical High School in 1942. She and her late husband Carlo were the longtime owners of Allied Paving Company. But her passion was working as a tour escort for Best Tours and Travel. She escorted many bus trips to the San Francisco Giants games, Reno, Carmel and Monterey, Laughlin, the Grand Canyon, Branson, MO and trips to The Price is Right where she was selected as a contestant in 1993. She was a homemaker who loved crocheting and was well known for her summer vegetable garden, homemade raviolis and homemade pies.

Angie is preceded in death by her husband Carlo in 1984.

She is survived by her son Bill and his wife Sandy; her daughter Pat; and sister Theresa Reynolds.

The family is eternally grateful to her loving caregivers for the last five years, Nora Gamueda and Rizza Gamueda.

Private Services were held.
