“ First, sending prayers to the family, I knew Annie going to WW. Annie was so uplifting and energetic. I looked forward to going to the meetings because Annie was a great speaker. I remember one day I went in and was kind of emotional. She came over to me, put her arms around me and said give yourself some grace. That comment has always come into my mind when I needed it and still does.

God bless the family.

“ My husband and I went to Annie’s memorial today. We will miss her beautiful spirit. Thanksgiving will always be a day to remember her. WW WALK AKA TURKEY TROT. Before the big feast. Countless laughs. Annie, you were the best! See you soon my friend.

Annie was the best leader I ever had with WW. And I mean really even at Target. I always loved seeing, Annie. It really breaks my heart to know she is gone. At least from this earth. I will forever remember her and always think, " what would, Annie say, about eating donuts, drinking margaritas, eating pizza, etc" it would always be a response like, " work with me there's fruit in the donut filing, or strawberries in the drinks, there's veggies on that pizza, cake always for birthdays, even if it wasn't yours,"!

This was the fun banter 🤔😭😄 fun Annie brought to my life. RIP dear friend. You truly fought an honorable fight. And were an amazing Godly woman. 🙌 Bravo on a life well served.

“I have several memories of Annie. One of them was our endless pool parties at our old house. To our family day trips. It was a lot of fun. I will always remember the fun times the HICKMANS AND CHARLESWORTHS HAD TOGETHER.
