

Armando Cadena

September 4, 1952 - October 7, 2015

10/07/Armando Cadena, 63, of Clovis, California died peacefully on Wednesday, October 7, 2015 surrounded by his loved ones. His death comes after a hard-fought battle with Multiple Myeloma over the last nine years.

Armando grew up in Fresno, attending Fremont Elementary, Hamilton Junior High before graduating from Fresno High in 1970. That's where he met the love of his life, Corina. The two had just celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary – she will miss him every minute of the day.

In addition to his wife, Armando leaves behind two children- son Eddie Cadena, daughter Susie

Mendez, son-in-law John Mendez, and three amazing grandchildren – Antonio John, Amanda Jacqueline and Bobby Mendez.

Preceded in death by his father Adrian Cadena, he is survived by mother Susie Cadena, sisters

Aurora Galaviz, Alice Gomez (and her husband Ernesto), Stella Berendsen (and her husband Phil) and brother Adrian Cadena (and his wife Sharon).

A die-hard San Francisco Giants fan, he instilled his love of baseball to his nephews, nieces and godchildren.

A public viewing will be held Tuesday, October 13th at 5:30 pm with a rosary to follow at 7:00 pm at the Chapel of the Light located at 1620 W. Belmont in Fresno.

Although the family is holding a private burial, a Celebration of Life is scheduled for Wednesday,

October 14 at 12:00pm at Crosspoint Church located at 2518 N. Cedar Avenue.

The Cadena Family would like to express their heart felt appreciation to the doctors, nurses and staff at the Fresno/Clovis Kaiser Hospital for their excellent care and compassion. Thank you.

In lieu of flowers, Armando's family requests donations to be made in his name to Crosspoint

Church or the Central California Chapter of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society at [lls.org/
central-california](https://www.lls.org/central-california).

Previous Events

Memorial Service

OCT 14. 12:00 PM (PT)

Crosspoint Church
2518 N. Cedar Ave.
Fresno, CA 93703

Tribute Wall

“ Armando Cadena

September 15, 2022 at 09:34 PM