“ *Mom,
It is really hard to not have you hear with us right now. Its going to be so hard when birthdays come around or the holidays come, but I just want you to know that I love you and the family misses you alot. I know you are no longer in pain or suffering anymore which brings me comfort but I do wish that you could still be with us. I know you are up there in heaven watching over us and probably wanting me to stop crying. Its hard to loose a loved one for me its hard to loose you mom. I love you always*

Your daughter (birdy) Arpi
