“ My name is Kelly. I worked with Sunchi at Gottschalks. I just found out and it's been awhile , but I absolutely loved her and I know she will always be missed. My favorite memory was spending a few hours with her and Mr. Robinson at a friends wedding. We talked about everything. We talked at work a lot and we had been to baby showers together. She was at my wedding. She was there through infertility treatments. I lost touch so I don't think she ever knew I had two daughters after being told I would never have children. She was a big part of my life in my 20's and early 30's. I know she is missed. M.y. Best to her family.

“ Sunchi is my aunt. Since I grew up in the Midwest and she lived in California, I did not get to see her often, but EVERY childhood memory of her is of a warm, witty and joyous person -- a loving and laughing aunt who we loved being around. Because the Midwest was so homogenous in the '60s when I was a child, people who lived in California were exotic to us (we pictured you Californians surfing all the time). I knew Aunt Sunchi was from Puerto Rico, and I knew that was an island (I think I pictured something like Gilligan's Island) and so I generalized from there and imagined this to be an exotic island of constantly happy, charming people. I've been there as an adult, and it is a wonderful place, but Aunt Sunchi was among the best of its people. We'll always love and remember her fondly.
