“ My nana was the most beautiful caring crazy lady I ever had the chance of knowing. She loved with everything she had. She paid for me and my husband to get married I remember doing the paperwork and then I went up to the counter and was going to pay and she pulls out money and tells me "let me at least do this" she was able to watch me graduate high-school get married have all my babies buy a house I'm so grateful for the time I did have with her. I'll miss her forever.
