“ Benita was a great friend. We met at the age of 13. One memory we shared is she told me that she went to my door and my Mom told her that she couldn't come outside and shut the door on her. Lol, Years later she told me that story. Fortunately we saw each other again after I met my son's girlfriend Cassandra. Then I also found out who she married Pedro Salmon. The funny thing is I also knew the Salmeron family. Thank you Benita for the gift of your daughter Cassandra whom now is also my family. She will always be loved from my entire family. I will always protect her for you as well as the grand children we share. Rest In Peace My Dear Friend. You'll always be missed, but not forgotten.
