“ Ben was such a nice soul. I played the piano for the Bullard High madrigals in which Ben sang. He was always so friendly and genuine. Kind of like a big teddy bear. Love and prayers to his family . Kathy Haig Brix

“ I'm a little late posting. I just want to thank Ben and Joy for introducing my husband and me to each other about 40-years ago. Thank you Joy and Ben, we really are forever grateful. You did good ❤️

“ Ben and I went to grade school together at A G Wishon in Fresno. We were cub scouts together until I moved to another neighborhood. Later, when he returned to Fresno, we rekindled our friendship at Bullard High. And recently, at our 50th high school reunion, Ben approached me and said, “You are my oldest friend.” I had forgotten about our elementary school days, but Ben hadn't. I will miss his upbeat vitality.

“ I’m so shocked and sad. I just found out last night about Ben’s death. Ben and I grew up together in Lebanon, Pennsylvania. Ben moved to California and the end on 9th grade. He always felt a connection to Lebanon and visited several times. We considered him an honorary member of our high school class. His last visit with us was in October 2021 for our 50th reunion. I’ll miss you Ben.

*Dear Ben,
We met you in person a few times Sequoia Tower and talked on facebook, and that's all it took to feel like we had known you for years!
You were just a sweet, lovable, humble and talented guy that I thought we would be bumping into a lot more times in the future. Goodbye, Ben.
.....love, Ken & Christine*

“ Ben once wrote to someone leaving our work group, "The journeys we all take to get here are astounding. Byrds members Gene Clark and Roger McGuinn wrote that "you showed me how to do exactly what you do. We fell in love with you." And Ben we felt the same about you. Miss you guy. Glad you hit Austin and made the music scene. I know that was a bucket list item. Bruce S. Vay

I'm saddened that he is gone. But I'm sure he is singing up there and playing his key board. Was a great person. Will be missed friend. 😭

“ Ben was always the life of the party. He was the funniest, cheekiest and most giving person. He was my mentor and a friend to my father and me. I will miss him but will always be proud to have met him. Thank you for making me “Ben 2.0” without the musical talent. Godspeed.
