“ Dearest Ket,

Our deepest condolences to you and your family. Unfortunately, we did not have the privilege of meeting your father. However, every time you spoke of him it was with great admiration.

Should there be anything we can do for you, please know that we are here for the asking.

I will continue to keep you and your family in my prayers.

“ My dearest Ket,

Dan and I would like to extend our deepest condolences to you and your family. Unfortunately, we did not have the privilege to meet your father. However, every time you spoke of him it was with great admiration. You shared with us on how he built things on his property with such pride and enjoyment.

I would like to share this poem with you, for it has comforted me in dealing with the loss of a loved one.

Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone.
To the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the angry, I was cheated,
But to the happy, I am at peace,
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So as you stand upon a shore,
gazing at a beautiful sea--remember me.
As you look in awe at a mighty forest
and its great majesty--remember me.
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity--remember me.
Remember me in your heart,
your thoughts, your memories of the times we loved,
The times we cried, the times we fought,
the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me,
I will never be gone.*

Should you need anything at all, please know that we are here for you.
