

Carmen Teresa Garcia

November 3, 1941 - October 10, 2019

Carmen T Garica was born in Benicia, CA on 11/3/1941 and went home to the Lord on 10/10/2019. She moved to Fresno, CA and made a career at Pacific Bell where she worked up to her retirement. She will be greatly missed by her four sisters and her many nieces and nephews. She will be remembered for her loving heart, her generosity, her love of reading, her one of a kind spirit and her love for her family which included her dogs. She made a great impact on our lives and will forever be in our hearts.

“ You will always be Aunt Carmen to me. All the trips you took me and Cathy on when we were little. I was just Cat's friend but I was around so many years that I was like a niece which you treated me like and loved me like. Thank you for all the love you showed me!! I always looked forward to seeing you at Cats parties. U will be missed! Luv your niece, Esther 💕

“ Aunt Carmen you will be missed by all of us.. your family. We never saw this coming.. The love that you showed all of us is a gift of it's own. Hopefully people can start to share that kind of love with eachother. God has called you home for his reason.. So Aunt Carmen I will see you one day again.. You are truly with a lot of people that love you.. love your niece Ronnie
