“ I have good memories of my tia Chella. She was always kind to me. I especially remember running thru the grape fields in Fresno watching as a boy and watching my cuz Javier, Armando and Carlos talk about cars. Yes the days go slow but years go fast. I'm glad she lived a long life. I know it must have been hard for her with Uncle Jesse. But she is a true testament of resilience. I pray the family finds peace and comfort. God Bless!
