“ She was the nicest person I ever met. I would watch her when she was alone and also help her with chores. I saw her as a family member more like a grandma. I remember that every Christmas or día de Reyes she would give my siblings and I a present or a box of cookies which was really meaningful to us. I enjoyed going to her house and talk with her I felt saved and welcomed with her. She leaves a lot of memories with me I will forever miss her. Que en paz descanse doña Celia.
