“ I have such great memories of Uncle Chuck! He was a giant of a man with a sincere and loving heart; a godly man. I was so impressed, as a young aspiring mechanic, by his mechanical knowledge and skills and his “can do” positive attitude. Later in life, I really admired his quick smile and laugh and his engaging positive spin on life. I will sincerely miss my Uncle Chuck!

“ Chuck had a very giving heart. He was always ready to step up and help anyone he thought needed help.

When at his house, you had better be ready to eat because he was determined to feed you and went all out to do so.

He will be sorely missed, but , remembered with a smile! We look forward to him greeting us in Heaven.

I always enjoyed Chuck and Pat's traveling visits to Missouri. I fondly remember getting a cousin to take us to the Raney Cemetery in the Fall, and "tromping around over ground-cover" in this cemetery looking for Pat's ancestors/relatives tombstones. Chuck was always fun, loved to travel, and willing to "take-on" a new adventure. Chuck will be greatly missed -- Rest In Peace dear cousin. Dorie Sheppard

I remember Chuck as a man who was enthusiastic about living life to the fullest. He maximized every opportunity to make us feel welcome and included and always treated us with kindness and generosity in sharing his time, energy and earthly resources. You could tell how deeply he loved and was devoted to his wife and children. His smile was contagious and he consistently warm and caring with family and friends. I am certain God was pleased with the way he conducted himself in his earthly life and by the grace of his Savior is now living the eternal life prepared for him in heaven. We can look forward to seeing him there. God's comfort and richest blessings be with Pat, Michael Jr. and Julie. Phil and Sharry Robinette

I'm remembering when Chuck and Pat were in Missouri and they went with Jim and I to the Branson, MO area. We camped with the "Good Sams" RV group that we belonged-to. We laughed and played games in the camp ground club house and had so much fun. It is so wonderful to remember their Missouri trips. Chuck will definitely be missed. Louise Thornhill
