“ I want to send my condolences to Christina's family. I know she went to be with the Lord some time ago but I know lose and missing a loved one can be very real even after years. I knew her at Bethany Bible College and taught her how to fish off the cliffs at Santa Cruz. I was surprised one day when she asked to borrow my fishing gear. She went by herself down to the cliffs and caught fish. She told me many guys down there tried to counsel her on how to fish. she humored them but once they went back to tend their own fishing rods she changed things the way I taught her. She seemed to get a lot of pleasure out of the fact she caught fish while the others caught nothing. I have fond memories of her.

“ To my dearest friend Christina Sanchez. I will always cherish our young adult years and the many time we went out to various church events; such as, youth retreats at Anaheim, Hume Lake, etc. I always admired your strength in caring for missionary work and always being a faithful servant. As a result of my admiration, I named my youngest daughter after you, Christina Joy Martinez. Rest In Peace my friend! John 3:16

“ I met Christina at People's Singles Group. I was so scared and nervous to go in by myself. She was so warm and welcomed me. We became friends, and went with our group to Mexico. I have a bad back, we asked our group to pray that my back didn't go out, and it didn't. We praised God, and sang. It was hard work but we had so much joy. On the way home we all sang climbing jacob's ladder in the van. There was such a feeling that I cannot describe in our van. Christina told me she took singing lessons she lived to sing, I know she's singing in heaven. God Bless her sweet beautiful soul.

“ Christina always had a smile on her face at work and always had a positive word for you when you needed. She will be missed by all who knew her. God Bless you and your family at this time of sorrow.
Fear not my child
I'm with you always
I feel every pain
And every tear I see
Fear not my child
I'm with you always
I know how to care
For what belongs to me
