“ I never got to meet my grandma but my uncle Chico loved her so much. He would tell me stories about how good her cooking was and how beautiful and creative, talented and loving of a person she was. He told me she used to say, “If you look good, you feel good. If you feel good, you do good”. Because of my uncle I know more about who i am and where I come from. I have the honor of sharing both my grandma and his memory to my children and future generations. I’ll miss you tio. I have lots of stories to tell.
