“ My Aunt Claudia was a very strong willed person all the way up to her last breath. I can honestly share that growing up with my aunt and cousins when I was teenager did not know the way of life until I spent summer's at the house. Truth was that I was showed the way of living she encountered with my cousins. Picking in the fields to get ahead in life my aunt waking up in the middle of the morning to make us all lunches for the day. I was thinking lunch? hum! little did I not know it was a job everyday that my cousins had to go do to help the family and my Aunt had a job to wake up and cook and cook again for dinner. Yes my Aunt taught me in ways to appreciate what I have. The house brings back a lot of fun and partying with all my cousins the good old days. I love my aunt for teaching me these values and setting them in my head for a lifetime. Rest in peace Aunt Claudia you taught me survival and respect most of all to forgive! Debbie Herrera
