“ I wish to extend my deepest sympathy to the Miranda family. Having known Clay Miranda only through loving insights shared by Dena, 'once upon a time' at Payless Pharmacy. He instilled values, work ethic, love of life, love of family in others. He will be missed.

“ Uncle Clarence always treated me with respect , he always had a smile , you could feel his love for you when he spoke , when he used to tell me to come to Fresno that he'd put me to work I knew he meant every word . I remember hearing him practice singing while me and Mike played outside when they lived in Nipomo , he could sing . he did his best to get me and my wife Charlotte to come and stay and visit.

He was truly a loving man that was sincere , Thank You For Your Love and Kindness Uncle Clarence , You Truly Will Be Missed RIP Your Nephew. Frank
