“ Corina was just a different soul. She was like a second mother to me. Always made sure I had what I needed. As we grew up we drifted apart. Somehow as I grew up we got closer again. When I moved she always texted me to make sure I was doing okay. She would send me surprise boxes at my door. Dolly made sure to stay in contact with me when I had my arm cut open. She was texting me when I was in labor and what to do. Dolly was crazy enough to find me in the hospital. She CARED! That’s the type of person she cared about others and put herself last. Most all she LOVED my baby with all she had! I just miss my sister and hold her dearly to my heart now. Don’t worry dolly I’ll let jocie have sweets once in awhile.
