“ Hello mama, how are you? It has been 2 years since you left us but the feeling of sadness and missing you are still fresh with us your loved ones. We know you and papa are at peace and we're kinda glad you didn't have to deal with this pandemic we had. It could have been a bad situation for you and papa. My wife joyce and my kids justine and jade miss you dearly. We certainly miss your compliments everytime we visit you at your house. We will never forget you mom. You and papa are in our hearts and minds forever. We're sad because you're not with us physically but we find comfort in knowing you're resting eternally. We love you mama. Always and forever.

“ Happy Birthday to our dearest Mama!! We miss you so very much mom. It eases my pain when I think that you and papa are still in your house that we can visit anytime but when reality strikes my smile would quickly go away. We love you mom and I hope as your son I made you proud. My wife and kids misses you too especially the times we would arrive at your house and would always tell my kids that they are so beautiful and they got their beauty from grandma. Of course mom. Stay happy with papa up in heaven. Eternal life with the person you love the most has to be the best feeling. Continue to guide us mom. Keep us away from harm. Again, THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING!!
Your son, JEFF

“ Hi mama,
One year went by and we're all missing you each and everyday. Papa was so lonely when you left that he decided to be with you in eternal life. It's so hard to think that you're not with us but it also gives us comfort knowing you and dad are together, feeling no pain and above all else you're with the good lord above. The past 2 months has been challenging to the whole because of the ongoing pandemic. It is even tougher for our family because we lost you and papa in less than a year. So much pain. So much hurt we endured. We know that god has plans for us and hopefully there is light at the end of this tunnel. Please help us keep our faith. Guide us to eternal life. Protect us from all harm. We love you and we miss you so much mama!!! Take care up there. I will see you later. God bless.
From your son, JEFF

“Mama, I feel so lost right now because I’m missing you so much. I’m just glad I get to say I love you for the last time and you responded I love you too. You’ve guided me all my life. You were there at every special events in my life. The day I got married, you accepted my wife as your own daughter because you knew that she was the one that will take care of me. When my children was born and grew up as young ladies, you always tell them that they’re so very pretty. I’ll never forget all the good times with you and dad. Your health has taken you away from your love ones but we know your heart and soul will always be with us. You can rest now mom. No more pain and no more suffering. Kuya bobot and kuya jojo will be with you to protect you just in case. We love you so much mama. Please look down on us and guide us. We’ll move on but rest assure that you will never be forgotten. God bless you. Rest in peace.
