“ I first met Jeff when he and my cousin were getting married back in 2019. I knew this man must be something terrific if Kelly was marrying him and I wanted to be there to show support ( and to check out this new member of the family). Of course, little did I know that my cousin had found the love of her life yet from the moment I laid eyes on Jeff, I knew it was true love he had for my cousin and the two of them were the picture of soulmates. It was an honor to share in their light and their love, all ways. Whenever I think of Jeff, my heart warms for the love he had of Kelly and the respect he had for life and all whom he cared for. A diamond in the rough, his presence will be sorely missed by me and anyone who knew him. Jeff, you are gone too soon yet I'm glad to know we have another angel watching over us and helping to share our dreams. God bless you and keep you. Watch over my cousin still and God bless the family and friends you have left too soon. Xox Cashlyn
