

Daphne Joan Jones

July 8, 1956 - August 2, 2018

Daphne (Johnson) Jones went to be with her savior on August 2, 2018. Daphne was born on July 8, 1956 to Adrian and Wanda Adams and joined her sister Valerie to complete their family.

She grew up in Corcoran, Ca. After attending college at Point Loma and later, Fresno State, Daphne went on to start a family and had two daughters, Ashley and Chelsea. She loved them deeply and they continued to be her pride and joy. Professionally, Daphne worked as a preschool teacher at St. Agnes Hospital, and elementary teacher at Tarpey and Valley Oak Elementary in Clovis Unified School District. She was a finalist for Fresno County Teacher of the Year, as well as having a long, rewarding and impactful career teaching and coaching hundreds of children.

In November 2014, Daphne was blessed to love and marry Ron Jones. In retirement, she and Ron were able to have many great experiences and continue to celebrate their faith, love and enjoy their blended families.

She is survived by her husband Ron Jones, her father Adrian Adams and wife Irene, her sister Valerie Smith and husband Gerald, daughters Ashley Johnson and Chelsea Toews and husband Hunter, stepchildren Sarah Jones and husband Brian Biehl, and Derek Jones and wife Amanda Davies along with their children Jaden and Keira Jones. Daphne loved being Grandma

Daphne to her grandbabies.

She is preceded in death by her mother Wanda Adams.

Daphne brought happiness to many through her love, compassion, and sense of humor.
