“ May you Rest In Peace old friend. Have known you since I was 13yrs old. We had so many good times growing up together and coming of age! Cruising, camping, burn barrels, riding, partying.....while it's been many years, you have always been in my heart and will be for all of my days. My condolences to Diane, Matthew And Derek and their families. When I think of Duane, I will do so with a smile.

“ Though I didn't know for as long as many folks on here, I feel like we have shared many, many years. I've told you before that I am truly grateful for raising such a wonderful and loving man. Again, thank you, Daddo (what I always called you) I will forever miss your laughter and smile. No worries, I will always be there for Momma and Matt. You can count on it. Love you. You will be truly missed.

“ Duane, you always managed to bring laughter, love & a smile to our group of friends; you'll never be forgotten, you've managed to make a place in our hearts that will live on forever. We're sorry you've left Diane & the family to grieve over you, however, the memories, the love, and the everyday humor you left will stay in their hearts forever. We will miss you dearly, Duane, please know you'll ALWAYS be in our stories to tell until we meet again, big hugs from us, brother/friend. Hey! Thanks for showing up in our lives, we love you. “ As many will attest to .. Duane was a tough guy but to his family and friends he was the kindest and could be the funniest guy in the room... You've suffered for so many years and now you will be pain free and on the road again.. My deepest condolences to Diane and family.. May God comfort your pain... Till we meet again.. Love ya Duane 🤘💕

“ How do you laugh about the times we all shared and then immediately cry. How many more times are we gonna do this. Happiness and sorrow. Our family sends love to Di and the whole family. We're gonna miss that laugh, his stories, his yelling for no reason. Both Vic and I have been so blessed to have not a friend but a brother. You were one of a kind bro. We have to say bye now,..love you and we'll miss you -Maresca's and Danelle Lujan
