

Ed Amende

December 13, 1945 - November 22, 2019

Adrian Edward "Ed" Amende was born in Fowler, California on December 13, 1945. He passed away in Hanford, California on November 22, 2019 at the age of 73.

Ed had many interests and hobbies thru out his life. He raced a door slammer at Raisin City and the Famosa Drag Strips in the 60's and 70's. He was an avid and successful deer hunter. Ed loved camping with family and friends in the mountains. Always an outdoorsman. Ed also enjoyed fishing and took his wife and children on several fishing trips. In his later years his son, Cliff, took Ed fishing in the ocean, on the delta and in the high mountain lakes. Ed loved working in his shop and when there was no work, just sitting out there listening to his 60's music.

He is survived by his wife Shirley Amende of Laton; son Cliff Amende of Fresno; daughter Pamela Rebeiro of Clovis; brother Robert Amende of Canada; sister Joyce Burckhard of Texas; eight grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

“ Ed Amende

September 15, 2022 at 09:34 PM

“ Hi Hon, I sit here thinking about you again, every day. I have wished so many times that you would come back to me, but I guess my miracle is not going to happen. It has been over 14 months since you left and I miss you so. I don't understand why God took you away from us. I love you. I know you are pain free and it must be glorious there in heaven, but I still want you here on earth. I love you

Shirley Amende - February 04, 2021 at 01:01 PM

“ I followed you everywhere as a little girl. I thought you could do no wrong. You taught me how to dance. You protected me most of my life. You teased me, taunted me but we never had cross words. We had deep conversations about hard subjects and never told a soul. Who else would take his little sister on a date with him so she could get out of the house? This says a lot about Shirley too. You tried to teach me to drive. We laughed so hard. Only I would get in a race car with you drag race! I trusted you implicitly. We did so many fun and goofy things together I can't put it all down. I'm sorry I couldn't speak at your funeral. I was too overcome an in shock. Bobby was unkind. You and I were always so close, we could talk to each other with just a look. This is my eulogy to you my precious brother. I always thought of you everyday. Even though we were apart in distance, you were never far from my heart. I will always love you Eddie.

“ Buddy and I have too many memories to mention but we they were our camping buddies. Pismo Beach and riding in the sand dunes. I'll always the time they came to visit us when we lived in Colorado and story about a mishap with some watermelons. At that time Buddy worked for Coors. We took them on a tour at the brewery. Somewhere I have a picture of Ed standing next to a 12 ft bottle of Coors. Fitting at the time because Ed really liked his beer. As I'm writing this, Ed is being laid to rest and since we couldn't be there this is my way of saying goodbye from afar.

Buddy and Joyce Brown - December 05, 2019 at 04:39 PM

Ed, you will be missed until we meet again. You left us way to soon but knowing even though you can't be physically with your love one's here on earth, you can enjoy a pain free existence with family who left before you. I bet your Mom and Dad are loving having you with them again.

“ We have enjoyed several holidays with Ed and Shirley over the past few years. After doing the tourist things throughout the day, we went to a carefully selected restaurant because Ed and Bob loved their food. Then my favourite part was to listen to Ed and Bob tell stories or memories and laugh. Ed always had interesting new facts to wow us. We miss you Ed. Juanita
