“ I met Eddie when I was 14 years old and I fell in love with him. We were together for 2 1/2 years. He was so good to me and showed me that he loved me everyday. He would walk me home from school and we would stop by the church where we would sit on this big truck that was parked in the alley by the church parking lot. We would be kissing when someone that knew my mom would go and tell her where we were. OMG she would come all mad yelling for me to get home. I look back at it now and it was so funny. We split up and didn't see each other again for a long time. After 31 years we saw each other again. My heart still skipped a beat when I saw him. We got together and were finally married. We were married for 8 years. Even though we got divorced, I was always there for him. Eddie I will Love you forever. You danced to the beat of your own drum and you always said if you want to be with me you better hang on. R.I.P Babe.
