

Eduardo Perez

October 13, 1941 - May 8, 2017

Eduardo Perez "Wally" to his beloved family, was born in Donna, Texas, on October 13, 1941, the son of Noe Ramirez and Maria Perez. He passed away on May 8, 2017, in Clovis, California. He was 75 years, 6 months, 25 days old. May He Rest in Peace.

Raised by their mother Maria, Wally and the family moved to the Fresno/Sanger area when he was 19 years old. Already working doing farm labor he made his career farming and working the ranches and fields of Sanger and Del Rey, California. He retired only after being slowed down by illness after more than 45 years. His passion was growing and ranching oranges.

Wally never married or had children of his own but all of his nieces and nephews would tell you that they were ALL his children. He loved them all and they all loved him.

He was preceded in death by his parents and all his siblings except for sister, Estella Segura, and many of the spouses of his siblings and all of those loving nieces and nephews and their families. Quiet and humble, he was loved by so many and will be greatly missed.
