“ Grandma, my beautiful Angel. Words cannot express how I’m feeling or what you meant to me. You were truly of a kind and made a huge impact on the world by just being you. You found the true beauty in everyone and everything around and could make a total stranger feel like a family member after a brief encounter with you. You had such a strong sense of community and were so selfless, you opened your heart, home and kitchen to anyone willing to give you their time without judgement or reservation. You had many more amazing qualities, it would be impossible to list them all, but as a start: You were strong, caring, courageous, loyal, protective, honest, smart, funny, hardworking, generous and resilient and showed us all how to be the same. Best of all you taught us how to love and to give love unconditionally. With that being said, you also told us to know our worth and to never settle for anything less. You set the gold standard for what a good person should be and set a strong foundation for many generations to come. I can only hope to be as great as you one day, you were a guiding force for so many. I will try my best to honor you by picking up where you left off. I love and miss you Grandma and will be eternally grateful for the quality time we shared together and for all of life’s valuable lessons you taught me along the way. Until we meet again you will live on forever in my heart ❤️

“ One week since you had to leave us. It all seems unreal to me. This is the longest I've gone without talking to or seeing you. It really sucks but I know you're in a better place. I know we will all be reunited one day but that doesn't mean I won't miss you until then. I love you my Goose.

“ My fondest memories of Emily were my childhood spending weekends at her house with Evonne and Michelle eating her homemade salsa, delicious food, and watching “Mighty Yo Young” (Mighty Joe Young). We also enjoyed lots of other movies. She had the warmest, soft hugs, and she loved all of us like her own. Goosie was truly a one in a million and I know she will be missed for a lifetime.
