

Rev. Father Trino Cortes Correa

June 4, 1950 - April 25, 2020

En Memoria de Reverendo Padre Trino Cortes Correa

Trino Cortes Correa nació el 4 de junio de 1950 en su amada ciudad natal de Florencia, Zacatecas, México, de sus padres Rogelio Correa Romero y María Concepción Cortes Correa.

Trino asistió al seminario en Chihuahua, México. Después de 15 años de estudio incansable, por la gracia de Dios, fue ordenado en la orden sacerdotal. Sirvió muchos años celebrando misas, bautizos, bodas y muchos otros sacramentos dentro de su ministerio. Más tarde llegó a California donde continuó sirviendo al Señor hasta su muerte. El Padre Trino fue instrumental en erigir la Capilla de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe en el campus de la Catedral Episcopal de St. James.

El padre Trino menciona en su propio obituario redactado, que nació pobre y vivió su vida en consecuencia con mucha humildad. Vivió para servir al Señor y cuidar a su amorosa familia.

Le sobreviven su esposa, Robertina; sus hijos Evelyn Correa, Flavio Correa y su esposa Araceli, Trino Correa Jr. y Esmeralda Correa. También será extrañado por sus amados feligreses, amigos y familiares.

"Vengan a todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les daré descanso para sus almas porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera" - Mateo 11,28

Se celebrará una misa privada en honor del reverendo Trino C. Correa. La sepultura tendrá lugar en el Jardín de la Devoción en la funeraria y el cementerio de la Capilla de la Luz.

In Loving Memory of Father Trino

Trino Cortes Correa was born on June 4, 1950 in his beloved hometown of Florencia, Zacatecas, Mexico to his parents Rogelio Correa Romero and Maria Concepcion Cortes Correa.

Trino attended seminary in Chihuahua, Mexico. After 15 years of tireless studying, by the grace of God, he was ordained into the priestly order. He served many years celebrating mass, baptisms, weddings and many other sacraments within his ministry. He later came to California where he continued to serve the Lord up until his death. Father Trino was instrumental of erecting the Our Lady of Guadalupe Chapel on the campus of St. James Episcopal Cathedral.

Father Trino mentions in his own drafted obituary, that he was born poor and lived his life accordingly with much humility. He lived to serve the Lord and care for his loving family.

He is survived by his wife, Robertina; his children Evelyn Correa, Flavio Correa and his wife Araceli, Trino Correa Jr., and Esmeralda Correa. He will also be missed by his loving parishioners, friends and extended family.

"Vengan a mi todos los que estan fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les dare descanso para sus almas porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga ligera" -

Mateo 11,28

A private mass will be held in honor of Rev. Trino C. Correa. Entombment will take place in the Garden of Devotion at Chapel of the Light Funeral Home and Cemetery.
