

Florencio Rombaoa Magno Jr.

February 21, 1938 - October 3, 2021

Florencio Rombaoa Magno Jr., of Sanger, CA, passed away on October 3, 2021, at Kaiser Hospital. Florencio, who was known by many as JR or Jun, was born in the Philippines on February 21, 1938, to Florencio Sr. and Juana (Rombaoa) Magno. He grew up with two older sisters, Concepcion (Ching) and Remedios (Remy). He attended Mapua Institute of Technology where he earned his degree in Mechanical Engineering and worked at Yupangco Cotton Mills (Philippines). In 1972, he immigrated to the United States and worked at various companies in New York and California. He enjoyed repairing cars, fixing broken equipment, gardening, playing piano, singing, watching James Bond and war movies, solving Sudoku, reading the newspaper, traveling, and simply spending time with Irene, his wife of 62 years.

Florencio is survived by his wife Irene, children: Cristina (Jerry) McNeal, IA; Rachel McNeal, Noel (Cora) Magno, Teresa (Rockie) Stevens, all from CA; and Gerard (Lisa) Magno, NC, and grandchildren: Kaylin McNeal, Ribekah McNeal, Frances (Pushpal) Sidhu, Sheila and Elizabeth Magno, Noah, Anna and John Stevens, and Bryson and Sydney Magno. He was preceded in death by his parents, his sister Concepcion and his daughter Socorro.

“Manong Junior is very dear to us especially to me. I got to know him a lot when he invited my parents to move to Fresno. My parents were struggling and so was I. With his care and kindness my parents moved near his place. He visited them now and then.

I was busy working in Chicago on a working visa. I did not have much time to spend in California as I was busy raising money to help my parents and other relatives. Life was hard but I had a lot of hope that my God is always with me. He is my all and all in hard and good times.

Manong Junior helped my parents find this home where I am right now. He loved spending time with us, chat a lot of the good old days in the Philippines. We laughed a lot. Because it was not easy to take off during the Holidays, my parents got invited to spend with them. These I know because my parents told me. Just happy my parents were not alone.

We have a grape vine that was from him. Each time I see it I am reminded of his goodness. He brought vegetables, fruits, of whatever he had. Just him stopping by to chat was ver much appreciated.

The COVID pandemic kept us apart physically. I am part resident of Illinois and California. Now I travel to California more than usual. Each time I thought of getting together, eat out and just talk just like the good old days. I felt very happy that he was better. I am also careful that I am not a source of any infection when I visit. Just monitoring the incidence of COVID and when it is safe for everyone the plan is to get together just like in the past.

However, there are things we could not control. The Lord called him home.

Manong Junior, I miss you but your memory lives on.
