

Gabriel Inosencio Vasquez

October 5, 1977 - October 29, 2018

Gabriel Inosencio Vasquez was born in Fresno, CA on October 5, 1977 to Robert T. and Angie R. Vasquez. Gabriel (known by Gabe to most) was the youngest of three children. Gabe attended Pacific Union Elementary and graduated from Washington Union High School in 1995. He earned his Associates of Science degree from San Joaquin Valley College in 2005. Since day one, Gabe loved being silly and making people laugh. He was kind, compassionate, loving, caring, thoughtful, warm, welcoming, supportive, encouraging, and a role model.

Gabe's pride and joy was his son, Ian Matthew (born February 12, 2003). He enjoyed attending his soccer games, baseball games, band performances, and most recently his acting performances.

Gabe's love for his family and friends was like no other. He continually kept in touch and did it with such ease and graciousness. He had a huge heart. Our lives will never be the same without him. And although Gabe was only here for a short time, he left behind a legacy that will live on.

Gabe leaves behind his son, Ian Matthew; parents, Robert T. and Angie R.; brother, Robert J. and wife Cheryl Vasquez; sister, Angela Vasquez; loving nieces and nephews; Godchildren; aunts and uncles, many loving cousins; and his cats, Mowgli and Marie.
