

Gail Weaver

June 15, 1943 - November 13, 2022

Gail Weaver, 79, passed away suddenly on November 13, 2022. Even though she was taken from this world, her loving heart will live on in her family.

Gail was a long-time federal employee, she worked for many federal agencies, including the Draft Board, FAA, Bureau of Reclamation, and the Air Force (civilian), but the majority of her career was with the U.S. Forest Service, which she was very proud of and enjoyed greatly. After being retired for 5 years, and the passing of her beloved husband, Lee Weaver, Gail returned to federal service to keep busy, where she worked for the IRS for 5 years.

The simplest things brought great joy to Gail. She spent hours working in her yard and she always had the most beautiful yard in the neighborhood in every home she owned. Even though she worked full time, she cooked every meal at home and made everything from scratch including bread. She had a passion for canning fruits and vegetables and even made her own mayonnaise. Friends and family always looked forward to dinner at her house. She was also an accomplished seamstress and crafter. She took up quilting after retirement where she made beautiful quilts with more than a thousand pieces of material. Lastly, she took great pleasure in spending time with her grandchildren.

Gail is survived by her 4 children, Paul Wickham, Tracy Chadwick, Patricia Williams, and Robin Ohlson, along with 13 grandchildren, 3 great grandchildren, her brother Howard Boe, and several nieces and nephews. Her cheerful attitude and bright smile will be missed.

Services will be held Saturday, December 17, 2022, at 11:30 am at The Chapel of the Light in Fresno California, followed by a celebration of life with directions to be shared at the funeral service.
