“ Wow I can't believe you are really gone. Now having said that. You maybe gone but you well never be forgotten. I can remember when I was a little you always made time for me. You took me with you guys to Disneyland. I remember my parents didn't want to let me go, but with your smooth talk you got them to change there mind. You promised them that you would not let anything happen to me. That I would be ok going with you guys. You said you wanted me to go so I can have fun with my nephews. That they didn't have to give any money for the trip. That you and my sister would take care of it. Thanks for being the fun love person that would always make me laugh every time I'd see you. Rest in peace you crazy nut. Now your with you son so don't you guys start any rooster fights. I can just imagine you guys doing that. Love your from your sister-in-law Mary Lou Munoz Rios

“ grandpa gene, i can still hear you calling me mija in my mind when i think of you. you loved all your grandchildren so much and i know that because i felt your love every time I saw you and every time i hugged you. I recorded one of our last conversations because I didn't want to forget what the sound of your voice is like, the one that brought me comfort and familiarity when i'd come over to visit. the voice that has been around my whole life, that consoled me as a baby and that helped raise my papi. i miss you very much, and i know wherever you are, you are always looking out for me. i promise to take care of your youngest son as he has cared for you over the years. we love you so so much & miss you dearly. until we see each other again grandpa, say hi to tio gene for me.

“ It broke my heart when I received the news that my kid's grandfather had passed. I met Geno when I was 14 years old. My family lived next door to the Garzas out in the middle of a grape field. Lol

Geno became my father-in-law after I married his son Gene in 1984. I remember how excited he was when I told him he was going to be a grandpa. He spoiled me so much, he often referred to me as the daughter he never had. I gave him his first and second grandkids Gene Jr. & Maryjane. And let me tell you how much he loves all his grandkids. I loved talking with him he always had a funny sense of humor. Although he was a stubborn man and things always had to be done his way he did have a big heart. He shared his love for his kids and his grandkids and to me . Even though my marriage with Gene ended many years ago Geno always kept in touch with me and my kids. He was the best father in law I ever had and I am blessed to have had him in my life and in my kids life. He will be truly missed and always loved.

Rest in paradise Geno
Your daughter always

“ Dear Dad: My heart is full and grateful for all of the memories that we shared! I will spend my entire life with your son. Thank you for raising Chuy! He is the best husband ever. I will miss you dad so much but I am also glad you are pain free. You will always be my hero. I will miss your phone calls and especially when we would end our phone conversations you would tell me that "you loved me" every time, thank you dad for being my father-in-law. They say there is a reason for us to leave and that time will heal, but I feel that neither time or reason makes sense but in my heart you will always be the best. I miss you more that anybody knows, until we meet again.... Love you always, your daughter in law Della Ortiz Garza

“ My loving Manito. As the youngest of the 9, you will leave a big void in my heart. But I will fill that void with the warmth and care that you always had to give. I will have all the good memories to keep me going and telling in your absence. May you rest in peace with mom and dad and our other siblings. Remember. You are the eldest so put them in place. Will miss you so much manito. Till we meet again. Remember, no drinking or smoking in front of the folks.
