

Glenna Jean Keeney

December 22, 1936 - October 6, 2025

Resident of Fresno, California

Glenna Jean McGregory Keeney was born on December 22, 1936, in Baxter Springs, Kansas, to Delphia Endicott McGregory and David Henry McGregory. She was the seventh of their children.

Delphia gave birth to four children who passed away in infancy. She later gave birth to Colleen, Kenneth, Glenna, David, Anna, Linda, and Roger.

In 1946, the family moved west-first to Sunnyside, Washington, and then to Fresno, California, where Glenna spent the remainder of her life. She attended West Park Elementary School and Washington Union High School.

On December 24, 1952, Glenna married Clifford Ray "Toby" Keeney. Together they raised six children: Bill, Michael, Karen, Randy, Kevin, and Shawn.

Glenna was preceded in death by her beloved husband Toby, son Michael, and her siblings Colleen, Kenneth, David, and Anna. She is survived by her children Bill, Karen, Randy, Kevin, and Shawn, her siblings Linda and Roger, and three generations of grandchildren, all of whom she loved and prayed for by name.

Glenna was a woman of deep faith, strong character, and unshakable love. She will be remembered for her kindness, sense of humor, and her unwavering devotion to family.

In her own words: "The only thing that matters is that I was loved by you all"

Reception to follow at Fulton 55, 875 Divisadero Street, Fresno, CA 93721.

“ I am the youngest daughter of Aunt Glenna's step Brother Art. He loved her very much and would take me to visit. I remember her soft kind voice and beautiful sweet smile that was very much like her Mama's. She will be missed.
