

Greg Lopez

June 7, 1960 - February 23, 2026

With heavy hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved husband and brother who passed away peacefully on February 23, 2026, at the age of 65, with his family by his side. He was born on June 7, 1960, and lived a life defined by love, dedication, and quiet strength.

He was a devoted husband and brother who treasured every laugh, hug, and moment spent with his wife and family. His family was his world, and he made sure they always knew they were loved, supported, and protected.

As a truck driver, he met many people from all walks of life. He was known for his friendly conversations, warm smile, and willingness to lend an ear. Whether offering a kind word, sharing a story, or simply providing a safe ride home, he touched more lives than he likely ever realized.

He will be remembered for his hardworking spirit, generous heart, and the steady presence he brought into every room. His laughter, wisdom, and unconditional love will forever echo in the hearts of those who knew him.

Though our hearts are broken, we find comfort knowing he passed surrounded by love. His legacy lives on through his children, grandchildren, and all who were blessed to call him family and friend.

He will be deeply missed and forever remembered.
