“ RIP Guadalupe , you were always such a good lady always open the doors to me and always asked if i wanted to eat and always said words that were true but with a smile and made me think about your wisdom , your home was like my own when i was growing up I still have them memories of you and your children Father god give them the peace and comfort at times like these the pain hurts, I know you will mend their broken hearts in time Hold them strong together . I know that's what she will love them to have :) GOD keep her in your kingdom she will be greatly missed. Rest in Peace beautiful lady... ~ Adella & Family
