

Hector E. Quintana

September 20, 1970 - May 7, 2023

Hector Eduardo Quintana Sr. was born September 20, 1970 in Woodlake California to Francisco and Emma Quintana. He lived the majority of his life in the central valley where he worked in construction as a framer and concrete layer. Hector was a very adventurous person, he enjoyed good music — anything to get him dancing, he once won a dance competition to the song Egyptian lover (which he was very proud of). He also liked his cars, riding his bike and bbq-ing but most of all spending time with friends & family. Hector was a humble human being, he never failed to show his infectious character. He was a very funny dude.. always laughing & cracking jokes if ever you crossed paths with Hector you would never walk away without laughter. Hector was survived by his 5 children Julian, Hector Jr., Alyssa, Malachi, and Katalina Quintana along with 4 granddaughters Nautica, Arabella, Jalyssa and Evalina. At this time on behalf of our family we would like to invite family & strictly close friends to join us in celebrating Hector's graduation to eternal life.

“ I live in Washington State, I met Hector through a close friend of mine. Everytime I saw Hector he ALWAYS complimented what I was wearing. He would always say " Woman you know how to dress to impress". His favorite outfit that I had was my all red Coke a cola sweatshirt. Hector will be genuinely missed.
