“ I can remember well when Woody and Helen would shop at my parent's grocery store (Larry's Ranch Market) and how kind and friendly they were. Upon passing of my parents, they came to their services.

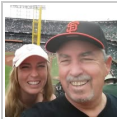

As a youngster, on occasion, Woody would give us a ride to my uncle's home in Santa Maria on his way to Vandenburg where he worked.

Helen was also kind enough to visit my dad several times, when he resided at a board and care facility in Fresno.

I am deeply saddened by your loss. She was a very classy women and will forever live in my heart.
