

Hok An Peng

January 5, 1948 - November 29, 2024

Obituary

On the evening of November 29th, 2024, Mr. An Hok Peng of Fresno, California passed away peacefully in his home surrounded by his loved ones.

Born on January 5, 1948, in Cambodia, Mr. Peng survived the horrors and atrocities of the brutal Khmer Rouge regime and sought asylum in the United States with his family by resettling in Bridgeport, Connecticut in 1985. He made Fresno his permanent home for the past 37 years, where he is a recognized community leader and member. Mr. Peng served as President of the local Cambodian Buddhist Society temple for several years and in numerous volunteer roles and philanthropic efforts to support and uplift the lives of others. His legacy of altruism, bravery, and compassion lives on in his family.

Mr. Peng is survived by his spouse, Mrs. Yonn Yong, five sons, four daughters and their respective families, numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren in California, Texas, Massachusetts, Virginia, and West Virginia including three younger brothers in France, one younger brother and other extended relatives in Cambodia.
