“ I got to know Isabell in my sewing and crafting group at Vineyard church. I'm so happy we got the chance to get to know each other. She was a dear, sweet soul. And she loved to crochet! I loved the little maroon colored shrug she was working on a couple of months back. We shared about friendships, struggles with chronic illnesses and medical concerns, and prayed together. Certainly she is in the realm of glory dwelling where light perpetual shines.

“ Belle was a good friend and prayer partner. We shared many common interests, especially love and prayers for our respective children. I loved her sense of style and she always looked beautiful, that's why I called her Belle. I loved her heart warming, intriguing or humorous posts on FB these last few years. Even with all her medical issues she still lifted my spirits via facebook. Although I didn't get to spend much time with her these last few years there is still a hole in my heart .

“ I met Isabel in 2016, when she was a regular phone banking volunteer at the Hillary Clinton Fresno office I managed inside the United Commercial Food Workers Office. She was always enthusiastic, politically saavy and did everything with alacrity. I knew James and she was so close to him through his USC student days, as President of Young Dems and as Senator Harris' staffer. He got his smarts and manners from her. RIP.

“ Isabel was my best friend! I have known her for almost 20 years. Through good times and bad, she was always there for me. She encouraged me, she challenged me, she brought out the best in me. She made me a better person. She showed me how to be a better Christian!!! She was the strongest, most loving, understanding person I know! She will be forever Loved, forever Missed. My heart has hole missing where she filled it. My heart is broken! I Love you my friend! You have no idea how many lives you touched! The world is a sadder place without you in it!
