

Iva Nell Lineaweaver

December 24, 1930 - February 7, 2024

Iva Nell Lineaweaver (Parrish) was born Christmas Eve 1930 to Clayton and Annie Parrish in Batesville, Arkansas. Clayton and Annie were blessed with three children Keith, Iva, and Benny.

The family eventually relocated to Richmond, California.

Iva met the love of her life Robert (Bob) Lineaweaver at the Rollerland Skating Rink in Oakland, California. After a brief engagement, they were married July 1, 1949 at The First Christian Church in Richmond, California. In the following years they were blessed with three sons Terry, Dale, and David.

Iva was a loving and dedicated homemaker who in later years enjoyed her employment with Mervyn's where she was known for her beautiful smile. Iva was a strong and independent woman who drove semi trucks, rode off-road motorcycles, and was always up for a good debate. She also enjoyed writing poems and was a member of The National Library of Poetry.

She was awarded the Editor's Choice Award for her poem "Respect" which was published in the book titled Best Poems of the 90's.

Iva had thirteen grandchildren including her granddaughters Michelle and Heather whom she adored. In addition to her grandchildren Iva was blessed with a multitude of great grandchildren including Mikayla and Aimee and finally a great-great granddaughter Kaliah Marie.

In her final years, Iva was cared for by her loving daughter-in-law Nancy and beautiful granddaughters Michelle and Heather. Her granddaughters felt it was an honor to take care of their "Grammy" since she took such good care of them.

Iva Nell passed away peacefully on February 7, 2024 surrounded by her son Dale, his immediate family, and her loving and devoted dog "Ginger". She was a wonderful wife, mother, and grandmother. She was truly loved and will be missed.

“ My husband Steve I met Iva many years ago through her son Dale and his wife Nancy. Over the years we were lucky enough to share many church and personal function with Iva and her family. She always had a smile on her face and a hug for you and always made you feel welcomed. Steve and I feel blessed that we were able to know Iva all theses years and will miss seeing her at her family functions. Your smile will live on in the hearts of all who were blessed to know you. Love Steve and Darlene
