“ Uncle Irving you will forever hold a piece of all of our hearts especially mine, I'll always remember you as that strong independent man stubborn as heck but so independent. You didn't have a easy life and you made the best of it. Your strength and determination will never ever go unnoticed, and I'll hold that close to my heart. Your laugh will always be something I'll remember for eternity. Growing up when we would have our family gatherings you showing up was always something special I'll always love you and wish I would of had one last time to hug you and tell you I love you! Give Grandma aunty Barbara and aunty Kathy a hug for me and just like your brother said until we meet again because life is short see ya soon on the other side ❤️

“ My hero. You fought the good fight of faith. I would always tell my wife how much you loved me. We played phone tag often but you never failed to leave a msg. You always called to see how I was doing. You didn't die alone. A part of me has died with you. Say hello to mom and Kathy. See you soon because Life is short. Love ya, your little brother Terold
